Integrative Veterinary Treatment Consent Form - Equine

Integrative veterinary medicine is a comprehensive medical approach to equine health care that combines conventional medicine and complementary/holistic therapies. Integrative veterinary medicine incorporates, but is not limited to, acupuncture, chiropractic, laser therapy, PEMF therapy, homeopathy, nutraceuticals, whole food supplements, herbals, and diet. It can be used in conjunction with conventional medicine or stand on its own. It is the AVMA's (American Veterinary Medical Association) regulation that acupuncture and homeopathy be practiced only by licensed veterinarians. By signing this form, I acknowledge that I am requesting Integrative Veterinary treatment for my horse. Such treatment may include the following:

- Traditional Chinese Veterinary Medicine
- Acupuncture
 - ✓ Dry needling
 - ✓ Aqua-acupuncture (injecting a solution into an acupuncture point)
 - ✓ Electro-acupuncture
 - ✓ Moxibustion (heating an acupuncture point)
 - ✓ Laser acupuncture
- Veterinary Spinal Manipulation Therapy/Animal Chiropractic
- Laser Therapy
- Tui-Na (Chinese Medical Massage)
- Homeopathy
- Assisi Loop & BEMER PEMF Treatment
- Herbal Supplements and Whole Food Therapy
- Thermal Imaging
- Titer Testing & Biofeedback Analysis

I acknowledge that I am using Integrative Healing Veterinary Clinic & Mobile Services for integrative veterinary care. I give permission to Dr. Theisen to treat my horse in this manner. I understand that she is not my primary care veterinarian, and therefore she will not provide any routine or emergency care services for my horse. In the event that my horse has an emergency, I will be required contact my primary care veterinarian and/or go to an emergency referral veterinary practice. I understand that payment is due when services are rendered and there is no billing. Acceptable payment options include cash, check, debit card, and credit card (Visa, Mastercard, Discover). In the event that I need to cancel/reschedule my appointment, a $50 Late Cancellation Fee will apply if not given 48 hours notice.
